

Victorian Disability Sector Disability Support Workers Awards 2009

Do you recognise a great Disability Support Worker when you see one?

What about a fabulous team?

...then nominate them for a Disability Support Worker Award!

The Disability Support Worker Awards recognise up to five individuals and one team of disability support workers. The awards provide the opportunity to acknowledge the achievements and celebrate the invaluable, and sometimes invisible, contribution of these workers in the Victorian disability services field.

Who is eligible?

Any individual (employed as a disability support worker for at least two years) or team of disability support workers, employed in a Victorian disability services managed or funded service is eligible.

Who can nominate?

Colleagues, managers and people with a disability and their friends or families can nominate either an individual or a team for an award.

The Awards will be presented at the Disability Support Worker Conference on 19 November 2009.

To locate a nomination form visit: www.dhs.vic.gov.au/disability/dswawards

For more information contact (03) 9096 2980 or email: wdl@dhs.vic.gov.au

NOMINATIONS CLOSE ON THE 18th SEPTEMBER 2009

A combined initiative of National Disability Services Victoria, Disability Professionals Victoria, Health and Community Services Union, Australian Education Union, Australasian Society for the Study of Intellectual Disability and the Department of Human Services./

